

National Emergency Management Association

The Case for a National All Hazard
Warning Process

Warning Process

- The event must be detected
- The decision to warn the public must be made
- The public must receive the warning
- The public must know what to do and act
- Unless we improve the outcome of the event, the system has failed