

Earthquakes & Tsunamis: What Happened in Japan and What It Means for the U.S.

Monday, 21 March 2011

SVC 202-203

1P-2:30P

Speakers:

- DAVID APPLGATE: Senior Science Advisor for Earthquake and Geologic Hazards, U.S. Geological Survey
USGS's Role in Earthquake Hazard Reduction: Summary of Japanese Earthquake
- JENIFER RHOADES: Tsunami Program Manager, National Weather Service
NOAA's Role in Tsunami Monitoring and Warning: Summary of the Japanese Tsunami
- DALE LEHMAN: Vice President, URS Corporation, Gaithersburg, Maryland
Infrastructure Recovery After a Natural Hazard: Rapid Response and First Steps
- JEFF STEHR: Research Scientist, Department of Atmospheric and Oceanic Science, University of Maryland
Plumes over the Pacific: Will Japanese Radiation Reach the U.S.?

- This is a widely-attended event -

RSVP to Kaitlin Chell at the American Geophysical Union at kchell@agu.org or 202.777.7506

